We want to hear from you directly in the form of a personalized essay. The suggested length for this essay is one to two pages, double-spaced, in 12-14 point font.

Please write a thoughtful, well-organized composition on the following topic:

From his first day on campus as a freshman through his graduation, a Saint Peter's Prep student will hear the term "men for others" countless times. Prep hopes to graduate young men who will put others before themselves, who recognize the gifts they have been given and understand that they have a responsibility to share those gifts with others. In your essay, please describe a time when you believe you have been a "man for others."
